The Fiscal Policy and Analysis Committee will meet for the purpose of discussing State funding for higher education in California for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. Of particular concern are potential budget cuts and their impact on access to educational opportunities for California's college students. Commission staff will comment on how the Governor's proposed budget for higher education aligns with the principles and priorities adopted at the Commission's December 13, 2002, meeting.
